Dear NCSA Member:

With your family soon to be home for the winter holidays, what better time to remind you about the National Confectionery Sales Association Scholarship Program! We recognize in today's world it is an obligation of the NCSA to assist when there is an opportunity and a need to help members' families pursue their education.

As Chairman of the Scholarship Committee, it is my pleasure to provide details of the 2012 scholarship program. The NCSA offers five $2,500 scholarships to the children and grandchildren of our members, thanks in no small part to the generous support of those who donate to this worthy cause.

Please review the Application and forward it to your children or grandchildren who attend or will attend a vocational or academic institution above the high school level in 2012. Alternately, the scholarship information and application can be found online at www.candyhalloffame.org.

On a personal note, I cannot let this opportunity pass without a "sales pitch." You and your company can assist us in this worthwhile campaign with a contribution. Our objective is to give as many grants as possible to worthy candidates and donations in any amount are welcome. To participate, please complete the form on the back of the enclosed membership application.

As you go through the scholarship application process, feel free to contact me with any questions or comments.

Fraternally,

P.S. I have enclosed a NCSA membership application in the event you have a non-member colleague who would like his or her children or grandchildren considered for a scholarship.

I have also included a 2012 Candy Hall of Fame Nomination Form. If you know of someone in the industry deserving of this high honor, please complete the form and return it by the January 13 deadline.
